

Conditions of participation in the inter-departmental specialization programme SGH & CIMA Certificate in Business Accounting - academic year 2018/2019

1. A joint programme of The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants CIMA and SGH Warsaw School of Economics named SGH & CIMA CBA Programme.
2. SGH & CIMA CBA Programme is designed for bachelor's level students, especially those studying finance, accounting and management
3. The CIMA programme covers the following subjects (implemented in Polish or in English):

Programme CIMA SGH & CIMA Certificate in Business Accounting
Signature	SGH subjects	ECTS points	CIMA module
11056	Accounting	4	BA3 –Fundamentals of Financial Accounting– a student is awarded with the CIMA exam exemption
12119	Mathematics of Finance	3	BA1 –Fundamentals of Business Economics– a student is awarded with CIMA exam exemption
11058	Statistics	7
11046	Macroeconomics I	6
11047	Macroeconomics II	4,5
11050	Microeconomics I	6
11051	Microeconomics II	5
11054	Basic of Law	4	BA4 –Fundamentals of Ethics, Corporate Governance and Law– a student is awarded with CIMA exam exemption
13211	Business Ethics	1,5
13999	Fundamentals of Management Accounting (syllabus CIMA)– the exam in English at the SGH Warsaw School of Economics according to the CIMA standard–the subject is launched only in the summer semester	5	BA2- Fundamentals of Management Accounting The CIMA external examination, to be passed at the Pearson Vue examination centre during the course of studies at the SGH Warsaw School of Economics. Computer exam in English, available throughout the year.

4. A student is admitted to the SGH & CIMA CBA Programme after initial registration in the Virtual Dean's Office, and then receiving the confirmation of being registered to the CIMA from the CIMA Programme Coordinator at the SGH. The student registers at CIMA, in the mode presented him by CIMA Programme Coordinator, previously agreed with CIMA. After closing registration at CIMA, student will be informed about it via e-mail
5. Registration of a student at CIMA takes place without the participation of the SGH Warsaw School of Economics, is generally based on the CIMA registration sheet and finally accepted after the CIMA registration fee is paid
6. After completing the registration at CIMA, the SGH student obtains the status of a CIMA student and all the rights given on the website: www.cimaglobal.com.
7. Graduates of the SGH & CIMA CBA Programme - after completing the conditions listed below - obtain the CIMA Certificate in Business Accounting issued by CIMA and the professional title of Cert BA

In order to complete CIMA Programme, students are obliged to:

- a. get acquainted with the SGH&CIMA CBA Programme Regulations
 - b. register to the Programme during the first-cycle studies in the mode specified by the CIMA Program Coordinator at the SGH Warsaw School of Economics;
 - c. complete the programme subjects described in point no 3 during the bachelor's level studies;
 - d. pass a standardized CIMA external exam in English at the Pearson Vue examination centre with the status of a bachelor's level student at SGH;
 - e. make the payment of CIMA exemptions fees and examination fee in Pearson Vue. Charges and modes for different payments are set out in attachment no 5.
8. A student participating in CIMA Programme has the same rights and obligations as any other student in the University.
 9. The benefits for students enrolled in CIMA Programme in a given academic year are described in a document entitled:

“BENEFITS for students of SGH Warsaw School of Economics participating in CIMA Programme implemented as part of first and second cycle studies with a specialisation SGH & CIMA Certificate in Business Accounting; SGH & CIMA Diploma in Management Accounting; SGH & CIMA Advanced Diploma in Management Accounting in the academic year 2018/2019”

– see Appendix 9.